SW & Computing for Big Science Journal

Monday, 24 April 2017 14:55 (25 minutes)

The initiative to create a journal about Software and Computing for Big Science was presented one year ago, at HEPiX Berlin. The journal has now been launched. This talk will remind what are the goals of the journal and how to contribute.

Length of talk (minutes)

20

Scheduling constraints / preferences

The presentation may not last 20 minutes but I think it would be good to have a reasonable time for discussion after the presentation.
