17 July 2017

Welcome to Reading

I hope that you will have a great week here.

The local organising team is Dion Kordopati and Ulrik Egede

Let me hear if you have any questions

Social events

Tonight there will be a reception in this room at 7 pm.

Wednesday has no programme, can be used for an excursion

Friday night has the dinner

Excursion option: Oxford

Oxford is about 30 minutes by train from Reading

If travelling 3 or more together, ask for group ticket at counter (you can't get a group ticket in automat).

Excursion option: London

Getting into central London is around 1 hour by train+tube

Great free museums (V&A, British museum, Tate gallery, Natural History museum, Science museum, National Gallery, ...)

The big tourist attractions (Tower of London, Big Ben, Tower bridge, Buckingham Palace)

Buy a travel card at Reading station. Valid in/out of London as well as everywhere inside London. You can leave after 9.30am.

Excursion option: Windsor castle

Train to Slough and then change to Windsor, about 45 min.

Where the Queen lives for most of the year

State Apartments, the Drawings Gallery, Queen Mary's Dolls' House and St George's Chapel

Admission is around £18

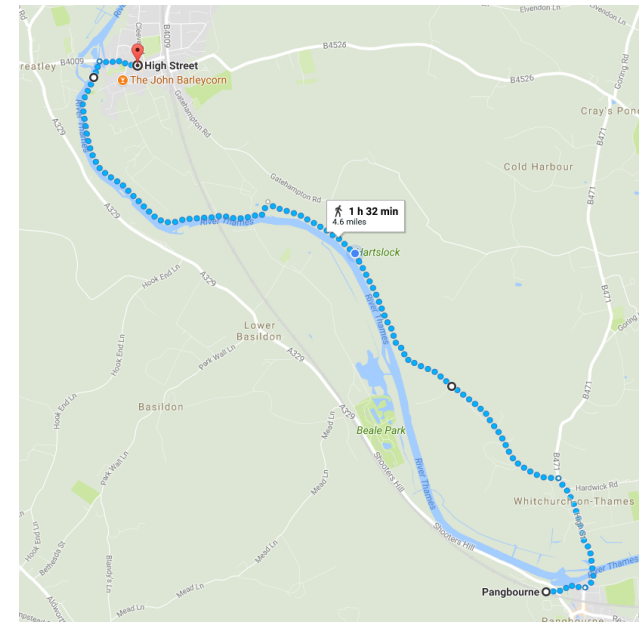

Excursion option: Walk

Reading is located on the rivers Thames and Kennet.

A walk along the river Thames

Both short and long options – let me know if interested.

Dinner

On Friday night at 7pm, we will have dinner at the Bel & Dragon
Located at last lock on river Kennet before it joins the Thames
