

Dining Options Near W.T. Young Library

Einstein Bros. Bagels: This location features fresh baked bagels and "shmears", morning pastries, "classic & culinary" sandwiches, fresh salads, hot soups and "oh so tasty" sweets.

Located near the Rose Street Entrance to the Chemistry-Physics Building, 505 Rose Street

Hillary J. Boone Center (patio seating only): Enjoy a variety of sandwiches, wraps, salads and desserts while dining on the patio.

Located at 500 Rose Street

K-Lair: Kentucky Proud is a key element of the menu with Kentucky Proud beef, fresh-baked breads and other wholesome, seasonal ingredients, UK specialty burgers, crisp garden salads, overstuffed deli sandwiches, fresh-cut then baked potato fries and other special signature treats.

Located in Haggin Hall, 373 Hilltop Avenue

Subway Café: This unique Subway Café is located in the MI King Library and feels unlike any traditional Subway you have been to.

Located in MI King Library, 100 Library Drive

The 90: This is UK's newest dining option and features the following:

- Fresh Food Company
- La Madeleine
- Taco Bell
- Aqua Sushi
- Ovids
- Wildcat Pantry

Located at 8 Complex Drive

Willy T Starbucks: This newly renovated Starbucks®, reopened on August 10. At 4,500 square feet, it's the largest Starbucks® in Kentucky.

Located in the W.T. Young Library

Additional Options: There are several restaurants located around campus, most within a 10 — 15 minute walk.

