

Contribution ID: 115

Type: Invited talk

New results on distribution amplitudes from lattice QCD

Wednesday, August 1, 2018 2:00 PM (30 minutes)

Light cone distribution amplitudes are needed in the theoretical description of exclusive processes. I will summarize results on their first Gegenbauer moments obtained by recent lattice simulations and comment on attempts to directly compute them in coordinate space.

Author: Prof. BALI, Gunnar (Universität Regensburg)

Presenter: Prof. BALI, Gunnar (Universität Regensburg)

Session Classification: Light quarks

Track Classification: B: Light quarks