

Contribution ID: 27

Type: not specified

[Cancelled] Tuning of Color Reconnection Models with CMS data at 7 and 13 TeV

A study of the latest color-reconnection models in QCD is performed with CMS data. The so called MPI-based, QCD-inspired and gluon-move models are studied within Pythia8, and the tuning parameters for the color reconnection and multiple parton interactions are extracted simultaneously from data. The different tunes are compared with top quark distributions.

Author: CMS COLLABORATION

Presenter: CMS COLLABORATION

Session Classification: WG5: Physics with Heavy Flavours

Track Classification: WG5: Physics with Heavy Flavours