

Contribution ID: 318

Type: Oral presentation

Status of the searches for magnetic monopoles

Saturday, 7 July 2018 12:30 (30 minutes)

The search for magnetic monopoles is a fascinating interdisciplinary field with implications in particle physics, astrophysics, and cosmology.

In this talk, the status of the searches for magnetic monopoles at accelerators and in the penetrating cosmic radiation is reviewed with emphasis on the most recent results from the MoEDAL experiment at the LHC.

Primary author: PATRIZII, Laura (Universita e INFN, Bologna (IT))

Presenter: PATRIZII, Laura (Universita e INFN, Bologna (IT))

Session Classification: Parallel Section A Particle Physics