

A night view of Taipei, Taiwan, featuring a large, colorful firework display in the foreground and a city skyline in the background. The fireworks are in shades of green, orange, and red, exploding in a tiered pattern. The city lights are visible in the background, including a prominent skyscraper with a blue light band.

XXXIX Physics in Collision
Taipei, Taiwan
16~20 September, 2019

Conference Venue

- The meeting will be held in the International Conference Room in the Physics Department. It is a ceilinged ladder room across the second and third floor with 206 auditorium chairs with armrest and writing board.

Accommodation

- The Howard Civil Service International House is located in the cultural education and economic business center in Da'an District, Taipei City with convenient traffic, providing star-grade hotel services on top of safe, comfortable, clean environment with fair prices, quality services and professional management.

Taiwanese Cuisine

