The screenshot shows the website for the Russian Language Teacher Programme. The header features the flags of Russia, Poland, and Ukraine, followed by the text "Russian Language Teacher Programme". Below the header, the dates "4-11 November 2018" and "CERN" are displayed, along with a search bar and the timezone "Europe/Zurich timezone". A navigation menu on the left includes "Overview", "Timetable", and "Administrative Support". The main content area provides a description of the programme, contact information for the Teacher Programme Manager (Jeff Wiener), emergency contact details for the CERN fire brigade, and the programme dates and location (CERN). It also lists the organizers: Stanislav Pakullik, Nikolai Zimine, and Jeff Wiener. A note at the bottom states that scientific programme and agenda information will be available under the Timetable and that precise arrival information at CERN will be sent via email.
