

Radiative charm decays and BSM physics

Recent development in theoretical study of radiative charm decays would presented. The impact of NP proposals on relevant observables would be discussed. The consequence of the NP explanation of B meson anomalies on rare charm decays would be given. Possibility Dark Matter presence would be discussed.