Hamburg in 1150

- ~ The Port of Hamburg was always the economical heart of the hanseatic city
- ~ The HafenCity is the largest city construction project in Europe
- ~ 3000 years worth of maritime history are displayed on nine 'decks'
- ~ There is an entire deck dedicated to marine research.
- ~ Particularly valuable: a copy of the „Atlantis Majoris“ from 1657, the first nautical atlas printed in the Netherlands.
