CMOS Workshop Round table

What are common areas that can be identified across the different fields – design, post-processing, assembly, test,...?

What are typical timelines for projects in the different fields – from R&D to installation?

Smaller pixels, faster readout are these the main needs in the near future? What about radiation damage?

Which are the industry trends and how can we adapt them to our needs?