

Axion like particles up to the QCD scale

Tuesday, 16 April 2019 17:30 (25 minutes)

Axion like particles (ALPs) with coupling to photons or gluon have long been postulated as extension to the Standard Model.

In this talk we explore different probes of ALPs at different energy scales up to the QCD scale.

We ALPs at photon beam experiments and at superconducting radiofrequency cavities.

Primary author: SOREQ, Yotam (CERN)

Presenter: SOREQ, Yotam (CERN)

Session Classification: BSM

Track Classification: BSM