HEPiX Spring 2019

San Diego Super Computer Center

HEPIX meetings have been held regularly since 1991 to bring together worldwide Information Technology staff, physicists and managers from the High Energy Physics and Nuclear Physics laboratories, institutes and universities such as BNL, CERN, DESY, FNAL, IN2P3, INFN, JLAB, NIKHEF, RAL, SLAC, TRIUMF and many others. The main purpose of the HEPiX semi-annual meetings is to foster a learning and sharing experience for physicists and IT specialists in scientific high-performance and data-intensive computing disciplines.

- Located in La Jolla, CA.
- Early registration ($150) goes till March 1st.
- Regular registration ($200) will be possible until March 18th.

Please see the event page for more information:
