

Diversity in Action workshop

10th edition

29 October 2018

at CERN's IdeaSquare (3179/R-E06)

Programme

08:45: Welcome! Registration, coffee and croissants

09:00: A short introduction to IdeaSquare and the Diversity Office

09:15: Diversity in Action, the morning session

During the morning session, the workshop introduces the diversity dimensions, unconscious bias and stereotypes as well as the influence of diversity on leadership and innovation.

12:30: Light meal at IdeaSquare

13:30: Diversity in Action, the afternoon session

In support of the organisation's values of "appreciating differences, fostering equality and promoting collaboration", this session of the workshop provides a sound understanding of the importance of the value of Diversity at CERN. The afternoon session aims to develop greater sensitivity to Diversity and Inclusion, to build a culture of inclusion at CERN. Within this framework, the participants will work on study cases taken from real situations at CERN.

16:30: Discussion and feedback session

17:00: End of the workshop
