

My name is Warin Patrick McBlain. I come from Thailand and I am currently doing a bachelor's degree in physics at Mahidol University. I work at the EP/UCM department.

What I liked most in my time as a summer student is to meet new people and being able to work in a good environment at CERN. After this, I will continue my bachelor's degree and find scholarships to further my study in academia.