Contribution ID: 271   Type: Oral Presentation

The layered phase of anisotropic gauge theories as a model for topological indulators

Monday 26 August 2019 12:30 (30 minutes)

We show that the properties of the layered phase of anisotropic gauge theories provide insights into the properties of topological insulators and provide useful computational tools for their quantitative description.

Primary author: Dr NICOLIS, Stam (Institut Denis Poisson, Université de Tours, Université d'Orléans, CNRS)

Presenter: Dr NICOLIS, Stam (Institut Denis Poisson, Université de Tours, Université d'Orléans, CNRS)

Session Classification: Workshop on Lattice and Condensed Matter Physics