

Contribution ID: 166

Type: Oral Presentation

ATLAS results on quarkonia and heavy flavour production

Wednesday 28 August 2019 17:10 (20 minutes)

The associated production of vector boson with quarkonia is a key observable for understanding the quarkonium production mechanisms, including the separation of single and double parton scattering components. This talk will present the latest measurements from ATLAS on quarkonium production, including associated production, and recent results from heavy flavour production.

Author: LYUBUSHKINA, Tatiana (Joint Institute for Nuclear Research (RU))

Presenter: LYUBUSHKINA, Tatiana (Joint Institute for Nuclear Research (RU))

Session Classification: Parallel Session