

Changes to OSG and how they affect US WLCG sites

Friday 29 March 2019 11:35 (25 minutes)

In the spring of 2018, central operations services were migrated out of the Grid Operations Center of Indiana into other participating Open Science Grid institutions. This talk summarizes how the migration has affected the services provided by the OSG, and gives a summary of how central OSG services interface with US WLCG sites.
