The Journey....

Individual Goals

A silhouette of a person standing on a rock, looking up at a starry night sky with the Milky Way galaxy visible. The person is positioned in the lower center of the frame, and the sky is filled with numerous stars and the bright band of the galaxy.

What do you as an individual hope to achieve?

How are you going to make that happen?

Write your goals on post-its

5 min

Team Goals

The background of the slide features a silhouette of a team of about ten people on a hilltop at sunset. They are holding hands and jumping in the air, celebrating. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds. The overall mood is one of achievement and teamwork.

What are your team goals ?

How are you going to make that happen?

Start from the end of the 2 weeks and work backwards

Individually write individual team goals on post-its

Asking Questions

The best way to build rapport.

How did you get involved in...?

What do you love most about ...?

What challenges are you facing in....?

What are you working on....?

Show interest

Remember their name!

Show genuine enthusiasm

Give sincere compliments

Remember details of their stories

About you!

A hand with pink nail polish holds a white Polaroid frame in the foreground. The background is a scenic view of a canyon with a river at the bottom and rocky cliffs on either side. The scene is slightly blurred, emphasizing the hand and the frame.

Show you're passionate about something!

Be authentic and open about yourself

Elevator Pitch

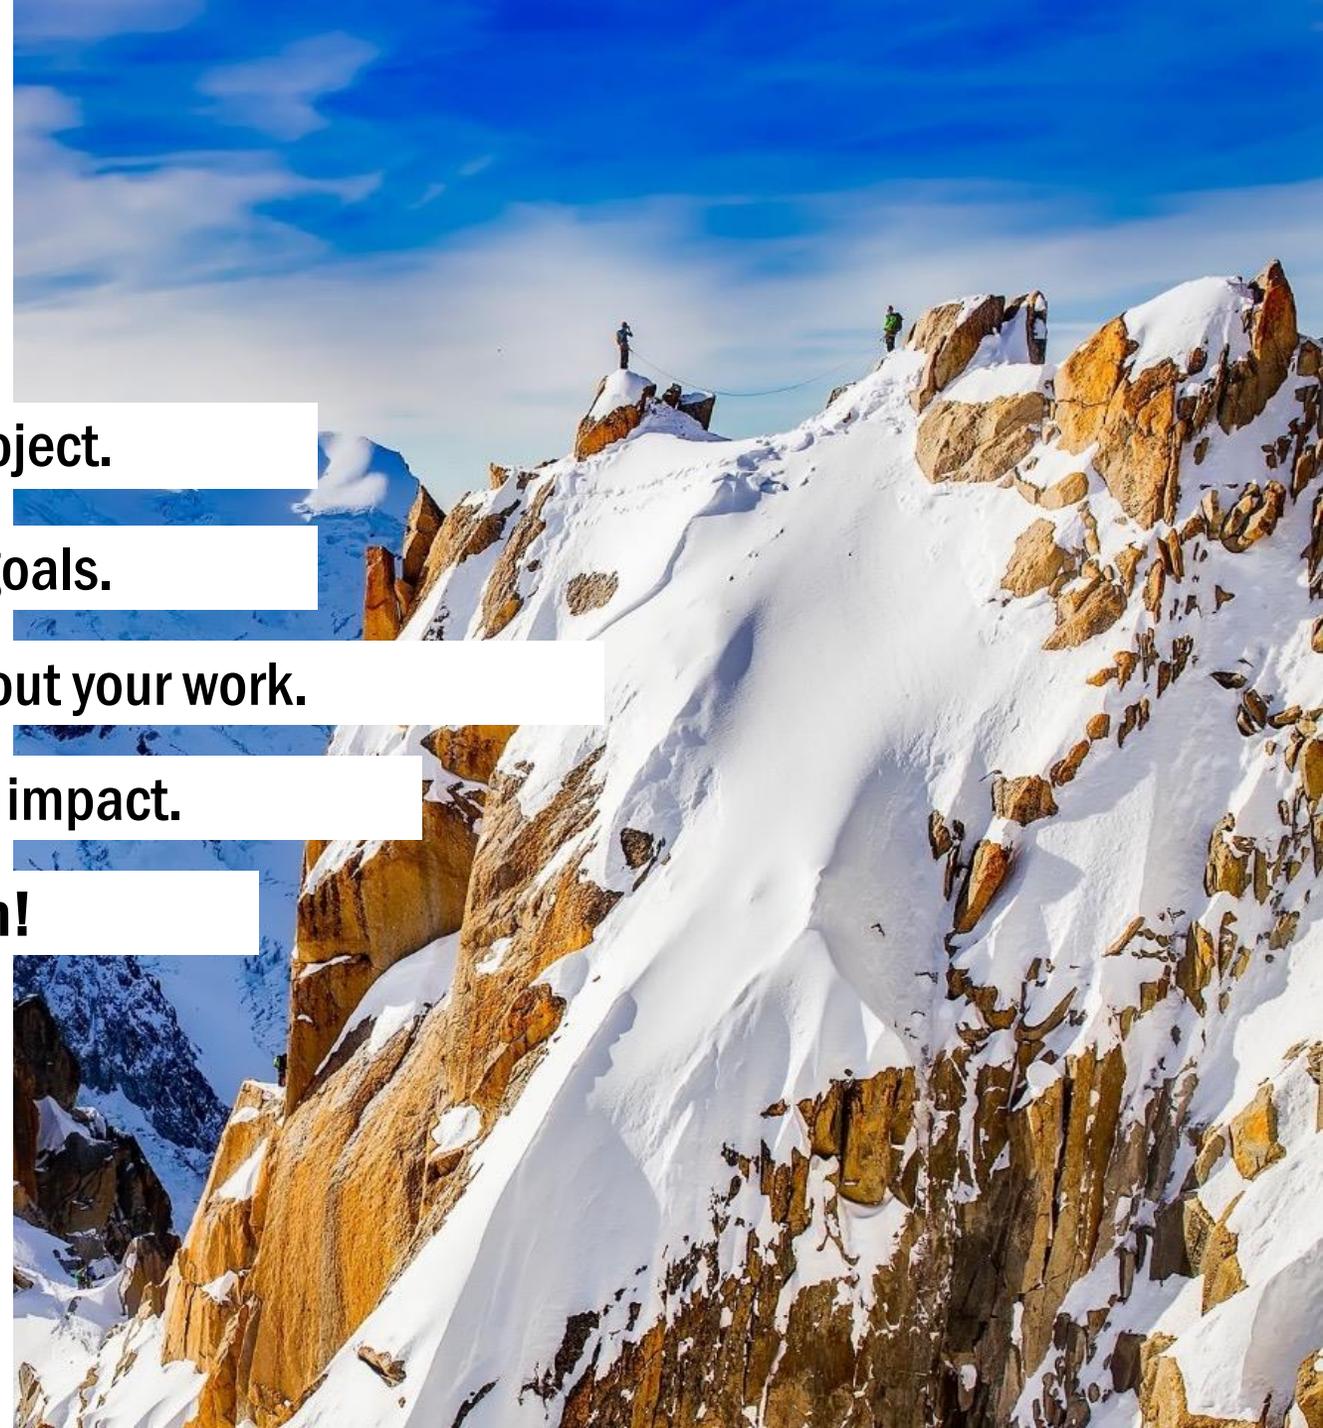

Be clear about your project.

Articulate about your goals.

Show that you care about your work.

Get excited about your impact.

This is not a sales pitch!

Spend 15min writing your pitch

Everyone on the team should be able to talk clearly

Describe your project in under 3 min

Get ready for a role play! Test your pitch in your team.

Tomorrow

An aerial, wide-angle photograph of a mountain valley. The scene is dominated by a river that winds through the center of the valley, surrounded by lush green forests. In the background, majestic mountains rise, their peaks and ridges covered in patches of snow. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The overall composition is symmetrical and captures the grandeur of the natural landscape.
