Computing and Machine Learning for Detector R&D (Summary of CPAD2018)

Thursday, August 1, 2019 4:00 PM (20 minutes)

In this talk, I will summarize and highlight the work of the Computing and Machine Learning session from the New Technologies for Discovery IV: CPAD Instrumentation Frontier workshop at Brown University in December 2018. This talk will cover on-going research and development efforts in this area described in the forthcoming New Technologies for Discovery Report.
