

XIV Polish Workshop on Relativistic Heavy-Ion Collisions

Kraków, Poland 6-7 April 2019

Dear Colleagues,

Thank you very much for the registration to the XIV Polish Workshop on Relativistic Heavy Ion Collisions. The meeting starts on Saturday, April 6, 2018, at 9am in Auditorium A (1st floor) of Faculty of Physics and Applied Computer Science, AGH University of Science and Technology, Reymonta 19, Kraków. The department is about 20 min walk from the Main Square (see map at the bottom).

An agenda has already been finalised and can be accessed from:

<https://indico.cern.ch/event/783416/timetable/#all.detailed>

Speakers are kindly asked to upload their presentations to the conference indico page at least 30min before the start of a session in which their talks are scheduled.

A registration desk will be open between 8-9am on Saturday, April 6th in the lobby near Auditorium A, and also during the first coffee break and 15 min before Session III.

On Saturday evening a conference dinner is scheduled at 7:30pm in a restaurant near the Main Square. If you plan to attend with an accompanying person please let the organisers know in advance via: hiworkshop2019@fis.agh.edu.pl

We look forward to welcoming you in Kraków.

Sincerely yours,

Tomasz Bołd, Piotr Bożek, Adam Bzdak, Iwona Grabowska-Bołd [Local organizers]
