

Experimental Particle Physics

Abstract

I'll review a few important results established over the 4 past decades mainly from Experiments at Particle Colliders.

- First lecture: past discoveries of, then, new particles
- Second lecture: precision measurements and indirect constraints
- Third lecture: direct searches for new particles