

Zero-touch Windows 10 migration: dream or reality?

Tuesday, 15 October 2019 11:15 (25 minutes)

In the past, migrating from one Windows version to the latest one needed a full reinstallation of every single workstation, with all the inconveniences this represents for both users and IT staff.

For Windows 10, Microsoft claimed that the in-place upgrade works fine. How true is this statement?

This presentation will cover real-life feedback.
