Aomori

Where is Aomori?

How to access to Aomori?

Aomori ●

Kyoto ●

● Tokyo

Aomori City (青森) in Aomori Prefecture is the northernmost prefectural capital city on Honshu, Japan's main island.

We plan to hold the TTC meeting in a venue in Aomori City.

There are multiple ways to get to Aomori City.

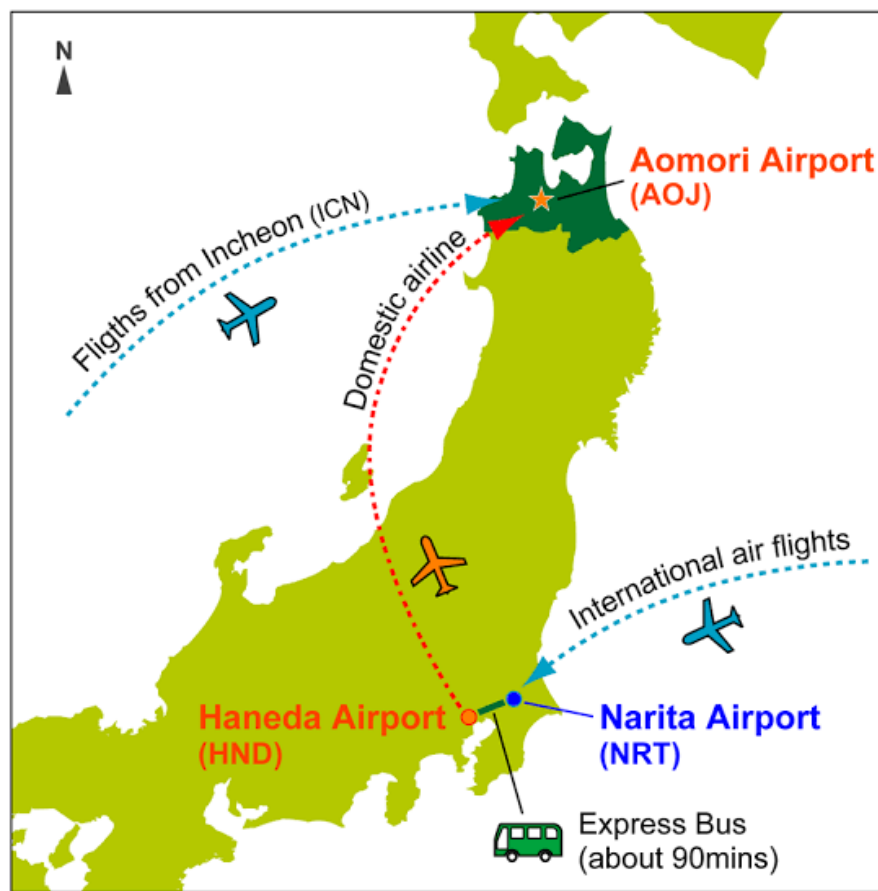

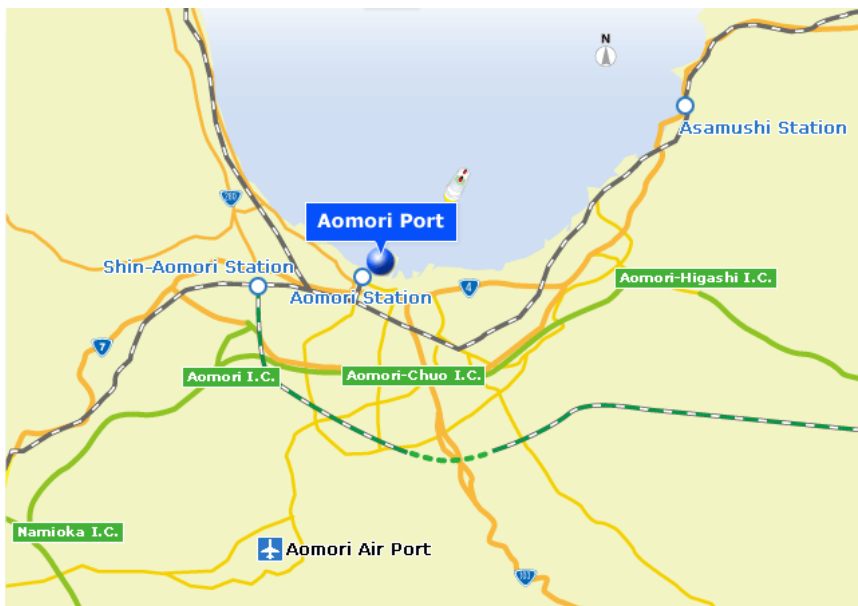

How to travel between Aomori and Tokyo

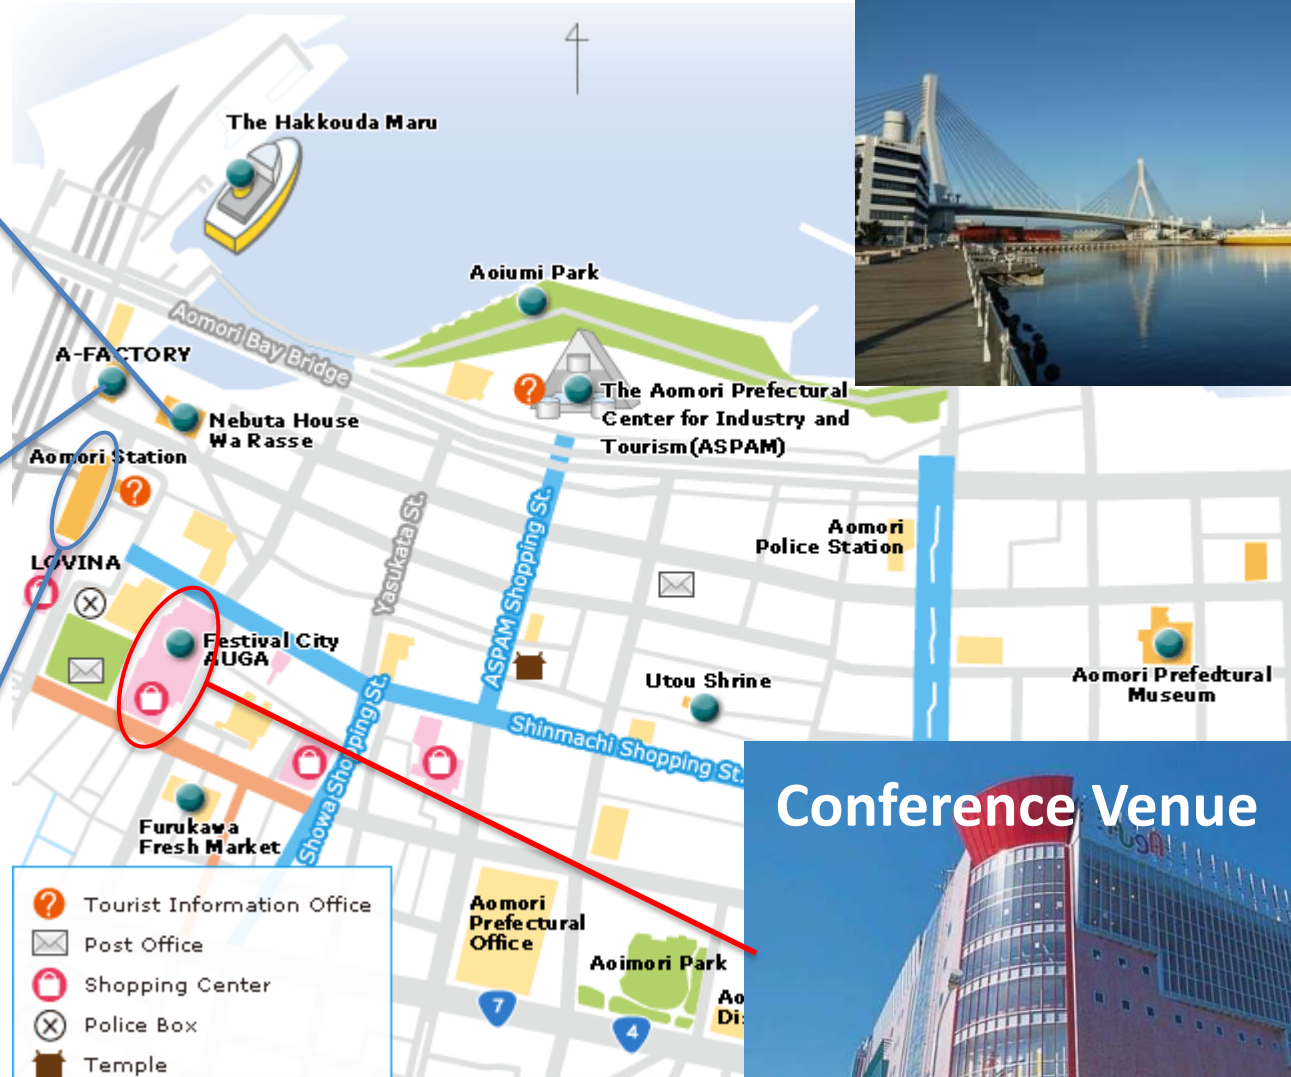

By air

The most convenient way to get there is to arrive at Haneda Airport by an international flight and then take a connecting flight to Aomori.

JAL operates multiple flights per day between Tokyo's Haneda Airport and Aomori Airport. Flight duration is 80 minutes.

From the airport, JR buses travel to JR Aomori Station (35 minutes, 710 yen one way), from which the conference venue is in a walking distance.

Aomori city is a beautiful coastal city.
The averaged temperature in beginning of
July is 16-24 deg. and a very pleasant to stay.

Many hotels are located in a walking distance from the venue in a reasonable price.

Station

Conference Venue

The map shows the Aomori city center with several hotels marked by blue location pins. A red rectangle highlights the 'Conference Venue' area near the 'Station' (Aomori Station). Blue lines connect the hotel information cards to their respective locations on the map. The map includes landmarks like Aomori Prefectural Office, Uto Shrine, and various streets like Shinmachi and Yasukata.
