

I am Mustafa Ozkaynak, I am from Cyprus and I study at Physics at UCL, I am in my fourth year of my integrated master's course. I have been doing the error analysis on the attenuation length measurement for scintillating fibres to be used in the SciFi Tracker. In the future I would like to finish my PhD and come work at CERN.