

Containers in the ESS integrated control system

Sunday 6 October 2019 13:30 (30 minutes)

Containers have rapidly evolved into the de-facto standard for deploying software infrastructure for the integrated control system at ESS. This short presentation gives an overview of the current status of containerization, shares some positive and negative experiences and indicates some areas for future exploration.

Presenter: VESTIN, Karl