Contribution ID: 22   Type: not specified

FaaS on Kubernetes with Knative

Thursday, 15 August 2019 15:01 (7 minutes)

Knative is a relatively new technology that extends the Kubernetes API to support deployment of server-less apps. On the CERN cloud team, we are investigating Knative as a candidate technology for offering Function-as-a-Service (FaaS) infrastructure to CERN cloud users.

Presenter: GALLEGOS DUPUIS, Juan Carlos