Connection information (Zoom)

(For those reading the slides offline: The sessions take place via Zoom. The links and passwords were sent via email)

• The conference Zoom rooms will open every morning at 08:46 AM\(^1\) CEST

• The talks start at 09:00 AM in most days. Thursday starts at 09:30

• Questions during the discussion time after talks can be done with the 'rise hand' button of Zoom.

• If for some reason this doesn't work for you, you can use the zoom chat.

• Please do not unmute unless necessary. You can as well switch on the camera when talking to improve communication.

\(^1\) 8’46” is the time length associated with the killing of George Floyd
Connection information (Mattermost)

• Mattermost channel

• Separate chat per session

• Use institutional account, or apply for a (light weight) CERN account

• If you are interested on a certain topic, we advice you to login to the chat in advance, as finding the correct one may take some minutes.

• You can go to a specific mattermost session chat from the main channel by clicking on "More..." or else use the link that is shown in the session description

• From a mattermost chat, you are able to start a quick zoom meeting with the people you are chatting with, for a more fluent conversation (There’s a button with a “plug” icon on the top right of each chat. One just has to click it).
