

Determination and status of the light baryon spectrum (Overview talk on partial-wave analysis)

I give an overview of (some of) the different analysis tools and PWA approaches used to extract the spectrum of N^* and Δ^* states from experimental data. Differences and similarities, e.g. in the construction of the amplitude, will be illustrated and I will show selected recent results.

Primary author: RÖNCHEN, Deborah

Presenter: RÖNCHEN, Deborah

Track Classification: Spectroscopy of hadrons