

Contribution ID: 52

Type: not specified

Radiation Issue

Friday, 27 January 2006 11:35 (20 minutes)

The radiation safety measures during the sector test will be described. The consequences of these temporary measures on the on going installation activity will be considered. The implications of the test on future activities will also be shown with a special attention to the possible activation by beam losses of LHC components and their effects on future installation activities in the zone.

Primary author: VINCKE, Helmut (SC/RP)

Presenter: VINCKE, Helmut (SC/RP)

Session Classification: Session 09 - Sector Test - Preparation