

Contribution ID: 329

Type: not specified

Gravitational waves from bubble collisions in first order phase transitions

Tuesday, 24 August 2021 16:20 (20 minutes)

We will discuss energy budget of first order phase transitions and identify models capable of supporting extreme supercooling necessary to feature bubble collisions as the main source of gravitational waves. We will also review the new semi-analytical calculation of the spectrum appropriate in such strong transitions.

Primary author: LEWICKI, Marek (University of Warsaw)

Presenter: LEWICKI, Marek (University of Warsaw)

Session Classification: Gravitational Waves as Probes for New Physics

Track Classification: Gravitational Waves as Probes for New Physics