

WARWICK WEEK Close-Out

Thank you for attending Warwick Fortnight.

It's been very different this year. Thanks for putting up with the inevitable glitches – I hope you still got a lot out of it, even if we were entirely online.

I'm sorry we couldn't all go to the pub for discussions :(

The lecture recordings will remain on the indico site for at least the next year.

The slack channel will remain open – I can't guarantee that we'll all keep an eye on it over the next year, but we'll try.

If you haven't yet : please fill in a feedback form!

Let's thank everyone!

I hope that the lecture material was

- ⦿ specific enough to help with your project and/or
- ⦿ general enough to give you an interesting overview of other fields of research and, perhaps most of all,
- ⦿ Interesting enough to teach you something new!

Good luck in your PhD, whatever your field.

“That’s all Folks!”
