

Introduction and news

CLICdp General Meeting, 11 May 2020

Aidan Robson, University of Glasgow

Welcome

Hoping everyone and your close ones are staying well, and still doing fine at home

CERN restart

Plans for CERN restart outlined during all-hands webcast on 5/5:

- ◆ From 18th May, add ~500 people per week to CERN site
- ◆ Ramp-up to unlimited access may be complete by ~mid-Sept.

Even after that, for individuals, the possibility of being at CERN may be influenced by various national travel restrictions

Extra hygiene measures in place on site (e.g. face-masks requirement); see DG memo circulated by Users Office, or on EDMS (2370902 and 2370903)

CLICdp draft circulation

Several CLICdp note/paper drafts have been in circulation, and several more on the way

- please do read and submit comments if you can
- thank you to those who have been doing this!

General Meetings

Today:

- ◆ Introduction and discussion on Snowmass
- ◆ Report from the Speakers Committee
- ◆ News from the FCAL Collaboration

Next CLICdp General Meeting planned for mid June, tbc
– volunteers for presentations very welcome

Please send any suggestions for this “remote” time
