

Towards an ECFA Early-Career Researchers (ECR) Panel

From the ECR report: “Overwhelming consensus was reached on the idea to establish a permanent ECR committee as part of ECFA. Such a committee would be able to give a mandate to a few individuals representing the ECRs in various bodies.”

“Many of the topics mentioned above have been discussed amongst early-career researchers, and it is recommended they form a panel, under the auspices of ECFA, in which these subjects can be discussed and monitored.”
