Is SeaTable like Excel?!?

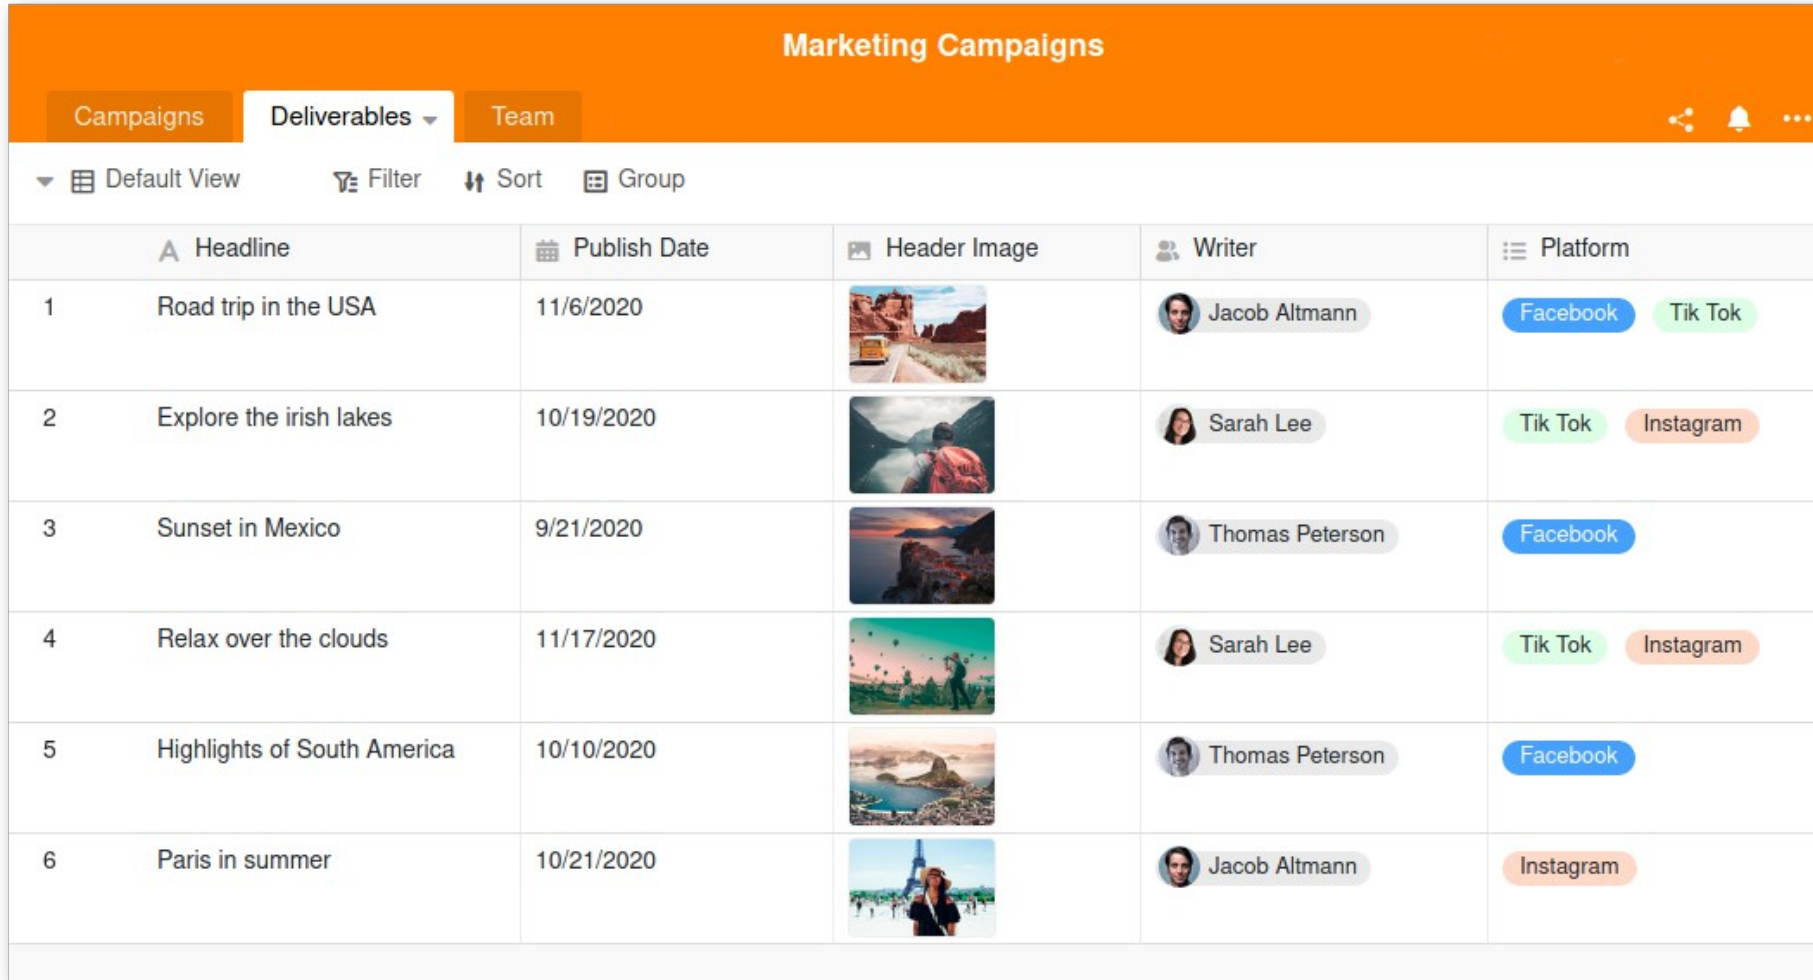

= to calculate

= to organize

SeaTable is the perfect tool for all kind of information.

One powerful feature: linking tables (n:m relations).

The screenshot displays the SeaTable Project Tracker interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Projects', 'Tasks', and 'Clients' tabs. Below the navigation bar, there are filters for 'All projects', 'Filter', 'Sort', 'Group', and 'Color'. The main table has the following columns: Project, Category, Finished, Images, Client, Project leader, Kick-off date, Deadline, Notes, and Tasks. A red box highlights the 'Client' column, and a red arrow points from the 'Clients' tab to this box.

The right presentation for everyone ...

The image displays two overlapping views of the SeaTable Project Tracker application. The foreground view is the 'Gallery' view, which shows a grid of project cards. Each card includes a thumbnail image, a title, a category tag, and the project manager's name. The cards are:

- Magazin: Over the mountain (Hiking & Friends, Philipp Braun)
- Design coffee mug (Coffee addicted, Christoph Dyllick)
- Coffee Landingpage (Coffee addicted, Christoph Dyllick)
- Blog Area Redesign (Chakalaka Inc., Enrico Pittaro)
- Sony Game Controller
- E-Mail Marketing
- Coffee New packaging
- New visual identity

... and simple communication (internal and external)

The screenshot displays a 'Project Tracker' interface. The main window is titled 'Row Details' and shows a project entry for 'Design coffee mug'. The project is categorized as 'Product design' and is marked as 'Finished' with a checked checkbox. Below the text, there are two image thumbnails: one showing three coffee cups and another showing a blue coffee cup with a logo. To the right, a 'Comment' panel is open, showing a thread of four comments from users Hulk, Tony Stark, and Philipp Braun, dated 2020-11-24. The comments are: Hulk: 'Hey, das Design ist toll.'; Tony Stark: 'hab ich mir ganz alleine überlegt...'; Philipp Braun: 'Wir brauchen noch eine Nahaufnahme!'; Philipp Braun: '@Tony Stark kümmerst du dich darum?'.
