

Zoom Code of Conduct

To ensure the smooth learning in the virtual environment we kindly ask you to adhere to the following rules.

General

- Use your full, real name (eg Edward Witten) when entering the lecture
- Keep muted at all times unless asking a question
- The background of your video should be appropriate for the virtual classroom

Participation

- The participants are expected to treat each other with courtesy and respect
- There are several ways in which you can raise a point/ask a question:
 - Immediate questions: simply unmute yourself and ask
 - Raise your hand: the chair will call you at the end of the lecture
 - Chat: please use it only for the relevant physics questions
[for any organizational matters please email one of the organizers]
 - Slack: space for open discussions and further questions

Organizational matters

- There is live webcast open to everyone
- The recordings of the lectures will be available shortly
- Please do not hesitate to contact organizers if you have any comment/question/suggestion

Enjoy the school!
